

Sam Houston

Chase Young

Narrators 1-6, ALL (narrators or the rest of the class)

Narrator 1: Texas has not always been a state.

ALL: No?

Narrator 2: Texas was a country.

ALL: Really?

Narrator 3: It was called the Republic of Texas?

ALL: When?

Narrator 4: Texas was a country from 1836 to 1845.

ALL: Why?

Narrator 5: Sam Houston said,

Sam Houston: "Let's have a revolution!"

ALL: Who?

Narrator 6: An American soldier.

ALL: When?

Narrator 1: In the war of 1812.

ALL: Then?

Narrator 2: He became President of Texas.

ALL: Always?

Narrator 3: Texas joined the United States.

Narrator 4: Sam Houston became the governor.

Narrator 5: He was the only person to be the governor of two states.

Narrator 6: We remember Sam Houston because he was a great Texan.

ALL: How?

Sam Houston: They named city of Houston after me.

Narrator 1: And an Army Base.

Narrator 2: A national forest.

Narrator 3: A park.

Narrator 4: And a university.

Narrator 5: His last words were,

Sam Houston: Texas. Texas. Margaret.

ALL: Who?

Narrator 6: His wife and his favorite state.