

The Infantry?

By Rachel Cameron

1 Narrator, 3 children

Narrator 1: In the woods there were 2 children playing tag. All the sudden they heard someone yelling.

Student 3: THE INFANTRY IS COMING!

Student 1: What was that?

Student 2: What was what?

Student 3: THE INFANTRY IS COMING!

Student 1: That! There is a person yelling about an infantry. What does that mean?

Student 2: That can't be true! An infantry is like an army. We are in the middle of the woods. No way is an infantry here.

Student 3: THE INFANTRY IS COMING!

Student 1: (Looks shocked) But, but... what if it is true. Maybe we should run and hide.

Narrator 1: All the sudden the children heard someone running toward them.

Student 2: RUN RUN THEY'RE HERE! THEY ARE COMING STRAIGHT FOR US!

Student 3: (Walks in with a baby tree). Where'd everyone go? I wanted to show them my infant tree.
