Narrator: It's Halloween! Tonight, Luke and Lottie are going trick-or-treating.

Lottie: I will be a witch.

Narrator: She's already wearing her witch hat.

Luke: And I'm dressing up as a ghost. I'm going to scare you. Boo!

Lottie: Ahhh! Look! There's a big spider.

Narrator: Luke sees it too.

Luke: Mom, help!

Mom: That's not a real spider, it's a decoration.

Narrator: Luke and Lottie carefully touch the spider.

Luke: It's so soft.

Lottie: But also, scary.

Mom: I'm making Halloween treats. Do you want to help?

Narrator: Yum! Luke and Lottie want to help! Luke puts raisin eyes on the banana ghosts and Lottie makes little pumpkins out of clementines.

Dad: Who wants to make jack-o'-lanterns?

Narrator: Dad cuts the top off the pumpkins. Lottie scoops out the pumpkin seeds with a spoon. Dad helps the twins make scary faces.

Luke: I want one with triangle eyes.

Lottie: I want circles on mine.

Narrator: Mom puts candles in the pumpkins. "Ooh!" Luke and Lottie look at the dancing lights.

Luke/Lottie: Time to put our costumes on!

Narrator: Dad dresses up too. He is a vampire.

Dad: Help! I'm being chased by a witch and a ghost!"

Narrator: The witch, the ghost, and the vampire go trick-or-treating together. Mom stays at home to hand out sweets.

Mom: Have fun!

Narrator: The street is filled with other trick-or-treaters. There are mummies, zombies, werewolves, skeletons, troll, ghosts, and witches.

Dad: Look! Aunt Tina and Marie are here too.

Narrator: Aunt Tina is dressed as a mummy, and Marie is dressed as a witch just like Lottie.

Luke: Come on, let's get started!

Lottie: What's that?

Luke: Is it a real witch?

Dad: No, it is just a neighbor welcoming the trick-or-treaters.

Narrator: Luke, Lottie, and Marie go from house to house. They ring the doorbell.

Luke/Lottie: Trick or treat!

Narrator: Then they get something sweet.

Narrator: Time to go home. Luke and Lottie tell Mom all about trick-or-treating.

Luke: Trick-or-treating was fun.

Lottie: But I'm happy to be home.

Narrator: Happy Halloween!
